

I Dream Graduate Profile

In order to pursue their own paths of personal success and service to their communities, learners at I Dream PCS continuously cultivate the following ways of being:

Compassionate

Building relationships. Being open to the opinions, ideas, and feelings of others. Listening for understanding.

Courageous

Being brave and humble. Advocating for yourself and others. Not being afraid to try, fail, and try again.

Creative

Building on ideas and thinking flexibly to approach problems in different ways and to design and craft work that matters to you.

Organized

Being intentional with your time, materials, thoughts, and words. Having a plan and knowing what you're going to say and do.

Collaborative

Making a promise to share ideas, negotiate, and compromise to learn new things you would never learn if you didn't work together.

Self-Directed

Boldly pursuing your dreams. Taking action and responsibility for life-long learning.
